

NOVICE HORSE LOGBOOK APPLICATION

SEPT 2024

Complete this application to apply for a Novice Horse Logbook. A separate application form exists for an Endurance Horse Logbook. Complete the following steps to obtain your Novice Horse Logbook.

1. Fully complete Sections 1 to 7.
2. Please note that either;
 - a. The Legal Owner or the Applicant must be a current member of the SAERA Inc. at the time of application.
 - b. The Legal Owner or the Applicant or a registered Veterinarian may complete Section 5.
3. The Applicant must send the following to the SAERA Inc. Registrar at the address shown below.
 - a. All completed pages of this Novice Horse Logbook Application.
 - b. A copy of any Breed Registration documents if available (e.g. AHSA).
4. Attach payment. Payment methods are detailed on page 4 of this application.

When emailing completed form, send as either a PDF or Word file. Photos of forms cannot be accepted.

If you choose to have a Veterinarian Identify your horse (Section 5) you MAY also choose to microchip your horse simultaneously, but this is NOT mandatory. All horses graduating to Endurance Horse status must be microchipped. If you chose to microchip your horse now, advise your Veterinarian to supply and insert an ISO compliant microchip and ensure the Veterinarian records the microchip number in Section 4.

*If anaesthetic is used when inserting the microchip, the horse cannot compete at an AERA affiliated event for 6 days following the date of insertion.
