

ENDURANCE HORSE LOGBOOK APPLICATION

APRIL 2025

Complete this application to progress your horse from Novice to Endurance Status.

There is a separate application for a Novice Log- book. Complete the following steps to successfully obtain an Endurance Logbook.

1. You will need to return your Novice Logbook with this application
2. All applicants must complete Sections 1, 2, 3 and 7.
3. If your Novice Logbook already contains a formal Veterinary ID (i.e. it was completed when you applied for your Novice Logbook) then ignore sections 5 and 6 – section 4 MUST be completed, if not forms will be returned.
4. The applicant must;
  - a. Send all pages of this application (appropriately completed);
  - b. Attach a copy of any Breed Registration documents (e.g. AHSA) if available and if not provided with the Novice Logbook application;
  - c. Select either Annual or Lifetime AERA Horse Registration
5. Arrange payment. Payment methods are detailed on page 4 of this application.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- When a Novice horse becomes Endurance it MUST have registration before it can complete in an endurance ride.
- ALL horses progressing to Endurance Status must be microchipped. If your horse had a formal Veterinary ID completed at the Novice Application stage but was not microchipped, then have your Veterinarian insert a microchip and have the Veterinarian record the microchip number where indicated in Section 4 and sign Section 6.

When emailing completed form, send as either a PDF or Word file. Photos of forms cannot be accepted.
